BoardSource Announces New Board Leadership

Washington, D.C. – BoardSource is pleased to announce that its board of directors recently elected a new slate of officers and welcomed three new members.

Leading the board is newly elected chair, Rick Moyers, who is vice president of programs and communications at the Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation, a Washington, DC funder with a national footprint on issues related to nonprofit leadership. “It’s a wonderful time to be stepping in as board chair,” said Moyers. “The board is energized by BoardSource’s momentum and growth trajectory and excited about our future.”

Moyers holds the distinction of being the first member of the board to have previously served as a member of the staff, having held leadership positions at BoardSource from 1992 to 1999. Said Moyers, “The organization—and the cause of strengthening nonprofit boards—have been important to me ever since. I believe passionately that BoardSource is an essential organization whose work has never been more critical.”

Moyers is joined by a slate of officers including

- Vice Chair — Cathy Trower, Ph.D., president, Trower & Trower, Inc. and author of The Practitioner’s Guide to Governance as Leadership
- Treasurer — Sharon Rossmark, chief operating officer, AeroVista Innovations
- Secretary — Mark Shamley, president & CEO, ACCP

BoardSource’s new leadership slate comes on the heels of electing several new board members who bring diverse experience and expertise that is aligned with the organization’s new strategic framework. They include

- Yanela Frias, CFO, Prudential Annuities, Prudential Financial
- Judy Vredenburg, president & CEO, Girls Inc.
- Sherece West-Scantlebury, Ph.D., president & CEO, Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation

“As is true of any team, getting the right talent and perspectives on the board is absolutely fundamental to the board’s success,” said Anne Wallestad, president & CEO of BoardSource. “That’s why we work so hard to support organizations in their efforts to recruit board members strategically, and why we approach our own board recruitment with the same intentionality and focus. I am thrilled to welcome these tremendous individuals to the board, and to have the opportunity to partner with Rick and the entire board as we work toward our vision of a world where every social sector has the leadership it needs to fulfill its mission and advance the public good.”
